

GEORG EDWARD PIIL

JR Software Developer

My name is Georg Edward Piil. I am a 24 year old student at Tartu Vocational college specializing in software development. In 2026, I started a digital marketing and web development company where we help businesses grow through strategic, measurable, and creatively executed digital marketing. I am motivated to work on the next level of developing to get valuable experience in this field so I could implement those skills in my own firm. I am passionate about problem solving and taking part in projects. I have experience in teamwork from playing basketball for 17 years at a college and professional level, also partaking in hackatons.
